

Empower your attendees to get the most from your event

Deliver greater attendee value

Attendees effectively matched and connected

Drive more revenue

Advanced viral marketing and sponsorship capabilities

All with no headache

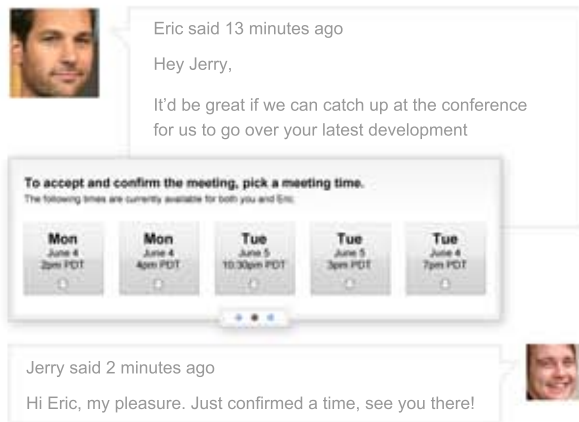

Simple setup in minutes

Great location, great sessions, and most of all, great networking opportunities. And you know it better than anyone: the most valuable moments are those meetings between attendees.

In fact, just thirty targeted, face-to-face meetings generate a year's worth of qualified leads, helping attendees get deals done, relationships forged, and ideas spread.

Hi Eric, my pleasure. Just confirmed a time, see you there!

How Presdo Match Works

Presdo Match creates an invitation-only “social network” around your event for attendees, exhibitors and sponsors so they can find each other based on matching interests, communicate, and coordinate meetings at your event.

- Rich profiles about attendees, exhibitors and sponsors are merged from LinkedIn and your event registration information, providing detailed information about who's attending
- Attendees can view recommendations on others with matching interests and existing contacts who are attending
- Communications, meeting requests and scheduling are coordinated easily and securely through Presdo Match
